DECISIONS SENT OUT.

Supreme Court Receives Acknowledgments.

It was thought wise by the Justices of the Supreme Court to send copies of the last Report of its decisions, volume 10, to various State and university libraries. By the Alameda letters acknowledging their receipt, with thanks, were received from the following:

Harvard University, by Justin Winsor, Librarian; Harvard Law School Library, by John H. Arnold, Librarian; Yale University, by A. Van Name, Librarian; Department of Justice, by James A. Finch, Librarian; Association of the Bar of New York, by W. J. C. Berry, Librarian; State Library of Pennsylvania, by Wm. H. Egle, Librarian; State Library of Vermont, by T. L. Wood, Assistant Librarian; State Library of Massachusetts, by C. B. Tillinghast, Librarian; State Library of Maine, by L. D. Carver, Librarian; State Library of New Jersey, by M. R. Hamilton, Librarian; State Library of Michigan, by Mary C. Spencer, Librarian.

More of these acknowledgments may be expected later. The Maine State Librarian, Mr. Carver, wishes to obtain a full set of Hawaiian reports and laws, and offers to maintain a permanent exchange of State reports and documents. The New Jersey Librarian, Mr. Hamilton says: "Why can't you send us a few back volumes to make a respectable show upon our shelves and possibly to have them quoted by our bar?"

Miss Spencer, State Librarian of Michigan, sends a copy of their catalogue of law books and offers to establish a system of exchanging reports. This arrangement has already been made with the Librarian of the State of Connecticut. The Massachusetts reports, it is said, are sent to the Hawaiian Foreign Office. The Court Library is not able to obtain copies without purchasing them out of their meager fund.

The Chief Justice, when abroad, inquired into the cost of completing the valuable reports of the United States Circuit Courts. They are now incomplete. The fund for the purchase of law books is only $1,000, and much more is needed, in order to keep up the library.

Fan Tan Players Captured.

Chillingworth and Vida are after the Chinese gamblers now. Sunday forenoon, about 11 o'clock, they raided a den in the second story of the stables at the corner of Maunakea and Beretania streets, and there captured 20 gamblers playing the game of fan-tan. When the officers got into the room money and the fan-tan outfit flew in every direction. Two Chinamen went through a trap door and escaped, while a third started to jump from a window. The latter was caught by Chillingworth and dragged back into the room. The gamblers showed fight, but they did not like the looks of the revolvers staring them in the face.

It is always gratifying to receive testimonials for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and when the endorsement is from a physician it is especially so. "There is no more satisfactory or effective remedy than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Dr. R. E. Robey, physician and pharmacist, of Olney, Mo.; and as he has used the Remedy in his own family and sold it in his drug store for six years, he should certainly know.
